

NO ROOM FOR TRAFFICKING

AN AHLA FOUNDATION PROGRAM

The No Room for Trafficking (NRFT) program builds on the hotel and lodging industry's longstanding commitment to eradicate human trafficking by uniting us around collective anti-trafficking efforts that meet the needs of today's hospitality employers and employees.

Through NRFT events, partnerships and resources we:

- ELEVATE the issue of human trafficking and industry efforts to prevent and combat it
- EDUCATE industry employers and employees to identify and report suspected trafficking in hotels and communities nationwide
- EMPOWER survivors with the support they need to thrive

ELEVATE INDUSTRY EFFORTS

RESOURCES

The AHLA Foundation offers a variety of industry-relevant resources – including a Member Resource Guide – to help identify the signs of human trafficking alongside tools for reporting, prevention and community awareness from partner organizations and agencies.

EVENTS

Throughout the year, we provide materials, resources and speakers for community-based events in addition to hosting major events aligned with National Human Trafficking Awareness Month (January) and World Day Against Trafficking in Persons (July 30th).

OUTREACH

We travel nationwide to illuminate critical issues related to human trafficking, sharing about our industry's anti-trafficking efforts as well as the latest training programs, partnerships and educational resources available to support our members and their employees.

Learn more and get involved today!

Email NRFT@ahla.com or visit AHLAfoundation.org/human-trafficking.

NO ROOM FOR TRAFFICKING

AN AHLA FOUNDATION PROGRAM

EDUCATE EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES

To support the safety of guests and employees, the hotel and lodging industry continuously updates and expands its training programs aimed at increasing the identification and reporting of suspected human trafficking. The AHLA Foundation supports the free distribution of these industry-standard courses, produced by Marriott International, and donated for industry-wide use, in collaboration with ECPAT-USA and Polaris:

YOUR ROLE IN PREVENTING HUMAN TRAFFICKING Recognizing the Signs

- Completed by more than 700,000 industry employees since 2020
- Available in 17 languages & integration with corporate LMS platforms
- Can be delivered in person via direct request to NRFT@ahla.com

RECOGNIZE AND RESPOND Preventing Human Trafficking

- Increased interactivity with scenario-based learning
- Unique learning paths for associates & managers
- Based on hotel-level feedback and survivor perspective

BOTH AVAILABLE NOW AT ECPATUSA.ORG/HOTEL-TRAINING

EMPOWER SURVIVORS

As training and awareness efforts increase reports of human trafficking, the AHLA Foundation strives to prevent the potential revictimization of identified survivors by supporting their immediate and longer-term stability. The innovative Survivor Fund will provide grants to organizations that directly empower and sustain survivors and their families on their path forward.

SPECIAL THANKS TO SURVIVOR FUND DONORS:

Learn more and get involved today!

Email NRFT@ahla.com or visit AHLAfoundation.org/human-trafficking.